

SLOs for ADST 110

- SLO #1. Discuss selected psychological theories and treatment modalities of alcohol and drug dependency.
- SLO #2. Describe the essential attributes needed to work effectively with the chemically dependent client.
- SLO #3. Appraise essential traits of the counselor which are needed to work effectively with the chemically dependent.
- SLO #4. Explain and illustrate ethical principals in chemical dependency counseling using examples.
- SLO #5. Discuss scope of practice and other regulatory issues.
- SLO #6. Summarize significant legal issues involved in counseling the chemically dependent.
- SLO #7. Appraise personal motives, strengths, and limitations in relation to chemical dependency counseling.
- SLO #8. Describe the process of case management in chemical dependency including client management, cost containment and the contemporary health care environment.