VI. Report of President/Student Trustee - Nathan Andriassian

- I hope you all had a good Easter for those who celebrate.
- Lelia and I attended the environment sustainability meeting which we'll cover later in the meeting.
- I need someone new to say the pledge at the Board of Trustees meeting. It would be great if someone whose never done it volunteered. Please let me know if you're interested.
- I met with the election committee on Friday, which is leading into this end of this month and beginning of May.

VII. Report of Administration Committee - Stella Karsian

- Happy Easter everyone. Admin is set for our second educational initiative in May focused around mental health awareness. We have a presentation, kahoot, and a kit making workshop.
- We're having food, giving out things like stress balls, fidget toys, and tea for the kits.

VIII. Report of Finance Committee - Sayat Teker

- We finished our second educational initiative last week. Thank you to those who came and supported us.
- Now our committee is focusing on our budget applications. I'm sending reminders to departments this week or else they won't have a budget next semester.

IX. Report of Activities Committee - Jada Ali

- We have our "Ready Set Grow" event aimed to make our GCC garden better, we're offering extra credit from various biology and environmental science classes.
- We're also doing Demin day, dedicated to sexual violence prevention, during the last week of April. Specific date and time is still to be determined.
- We're giving out teal merch and rape whistles and students will be learning about sexual assault prevention.

X. Report of Relations Committee - Lena Markosian

- We're planning our second educational initiative on May 5th, focused around Mother's day with Calworks and GCC cares. Students can learn about different departments, and then go and make a bouquet.

- We were planning on collabing with the Scholars Program, but it may not work out.

XI. Report of Organizations Committee - Hakop Avetisyan

- We planned our first educational initiative which will be the tuesday April 21st from 12:00-1:30 PM. It's "Pedals for Armeni", with a presentation from AYF about the history of Armenia and the Forget Me Not flower.
- At the end of the presentation, students will be able to make their own Forget Me Not flower.
- We will be catering Flame Broiler which is an Armenian owned company.
- We're planning our second education initiative which is a movie screening. We're thinking of collabing with different clubs. We will be screening a film and having a panel for Pacific Asian Islander Month.
- The next IOC meeting is April 27th, and we're going over the funds today.

XII. Report of Officers

Nathan Andriassian

- I talked about student surveys earlier, and me and Bella attended the meeting about it. They want to revise the surveys and make them better so I wanted to show you guys the edits we made.
- There were cultural and demographic questions.
- They wanted to pull that information from student files so students wouldn't have to answer, but that would take away from the anonymous aspect of the survey.

XIII. Reports of Governance/Special Committee Meetings

- Campus Development - Lena Markosian / Daniella Elpatova
  - It was a really short meeting, mostly talking about the cafeteria and went over the feedback the students who attended the Zoom meetings gave.
  - The dates for the renovation are expected to be through April.
  - There's concerns over the bus stop and whether to include charging ports.
  - New furniture for cafeteria is coming on April 24th.
- Environment and Sustainability - Nathan Andriassian / Lelia Khochian
  - We talked about Earth Day and last minute presentations. We talked about a idea of a guest speaker. We approved a time for the guest speaker during the event.
  - Nathan proposed for ASGCC to sponsor the food for Earth Day.
  - We also talked about the elevated led levels in the water. They test for led every 5 years, but now it's every 2 years. We don't know if they're talking about only drinking water or all types of waters.
  - There are student guest speakers at Earth Day, and a professor is offering extra credit for it.
  - If the food get's approved in our meeting today, we're probably going to cater Big Mama's and Papa's.
  - They discussed people tabling the event, but it probably won't happen.
  - There was people who wanted to table and endorse political candidates but that's not allowed.

XVII. Reports of Advisors

Tzoler Oukayan

- This Friday ASA is hosting “Sounds of Ararat” and Stella will be performing. It would be great for ASGCC to come and show support. It’s this Friday, 5:45 PM is the reception, and 6:30 PM to start.
- This month starts off the Armenian Genocide Rememberence.
- Make sure you submit your petitions to graduate, they’re due when we get back from Spring Break.
- You also all get a ASGCC stol.
- You all should have received an email for May 2nd for open house. It’s an opportunity to invite the community and alumni on campus. I encourage you to RSVP and participate. It would be greate to have an AS event or booth during it.
- Have an excellent Spring Break, be safe and get some rest.

Claudia Juan

- I will echo what Tzoler said about Sounds Of Ararat, if you want to come and support.
- Student distinction applications closed, I need a volunteer to help review applications. We have two weeks to get the names to Tzoler.
- Please submit your petition to graduate or else it will delay your degree.
- Leadership is this Wednesday Sierra Vista 233 from 12:30-1:30PM.

XVIII. Announcements/Information

Amy Novshadyan

- The Autism Resource Fair is this Saturday at Pacific Park and you’ll get community service hours if you attend.

Daniela Elpatova

- 8 week classes end this week and I wish you all to have a great spring break.

Nathan Andriassian

- Capaigning for elections begins Monday April 27th. During this week you’ll have a week to make a candidate photo, statement, and get 100 signatures. Feel free to ask me any questions about it.

Vahagn Grigoryan

- There’s a cool event today that’ll be screening Black Panther.
